COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The organizational meeting of the Community Safety Advisory Committee was held Wednesday, Nov. 3 in the town office. The officers of the committee are Dave Denison, chairman; Brad Barker, vice chairman; Barbara Brown, secretary. It was decided that the committee would hold weekly meetings on Wednesday evenings from 7:15 to 9 at the town office.

The committee reviewed the suggested areas of study as developed by the selectmen and set the following priorities: (1) identify specific problems; (2) develop as many alternative solutions as possible; and (3) make recommendations to the selectmen based on what the committee feels are the best solutions. The following problem areas were identified: Loitering, including the problems of drinking, hitting, drugs, disrespect for private property (vandalism), verbal abuse, and excessive noise late at night; irresponsible use of automobiles, including driving to endanger and excessive noise; and Burglary and larceny.

Bethel's current loitering ordinance and the South Paris loitering and curfew ordinances were reviewed and it was decided that an attorney from the Maine Municipal Association be asked to the next meeting to discuss ordinances.

The chairman also briefed the committee about the Community Alliance Program being initiated by the Maine Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance Agency. Under this program, a committee is being established in Franklin and Oxford Counties to provide input into the planning of standards and goals for the criminal justice system. On Wednesday, Nov. 10, the committee met with Jeff Hole, Attorney at the Maine Municipal Association, to obtain legal guidance regarding ordinances.

The limits of loitering ordinances were discussed as was the relationship between local loitering ordinances and the Maine Criminal Code. The committee also discussed various alternative solutions with Attorney Hole. The next meeting was set for Wednesday, Nov. 17.

The Board of Assessors met Tuesday night, Nov. 16, to continue the review of assessment prob-

YOUTH SKI PROGRAM INFORMATIONAL MEETING AT CASCO BANK, NOV. 22

On Monday, Nov. 22, at 7 p. m. at the Casco Bank there will be an informational meeting for children, their parents, and other adults who are interested in developing a Bill Koch League program in Bethel.

The Bill Koch League (formerly known as the Torger Tokde League) is organized under the Eastern Ski Association to offer boys and girls age 13 and under, the opportunity to compete in nordic skiing. This includes both cross country and ski jumping competition. It is expected that the program will concentrate on cross-country during this first year.

Objective of the Bill Koch program are: 1. To teach the fundamentals of jumping and cross-country skiing; 2. To introduce low-pressure competition at a young age; 3. To teach good sportsmanship.

The Bill Koch program is for children who now enjoy, or those you think will enjoy the beauty, the satisfaction, thrills and rigors of nordic skiing.

There are boys and girls classes in each of the following age groups: Class V — 9 years and younger; Class IV — 10-11 year olds; Class III — 12-13 year olds.

The program is strongly oriented toward complete family participation, attempting to involve both youngsters and their parents. Parents are encouraged to learn the fundamentals of nordic skiing, both to teach their youngsters and to enjoy the sport themselves. Parents are also urged to participate in organizing and officiating at Bill Koch events.

If you are unable to attend the meeting and would like more information, contact Art Froberg at 824-2080.

SECOND SWINE FLU CLINIC AT GOULD GYM SATURDAY, NOV. 20

The second swine flu clinic will be held at Gould Academy in Bingham Gym on Nov. 20 between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

This clinic is for those between the ages of 18 and 65 who wish to be immunized against swine flu. If in doubt about having the shot please consult your physician.

Dr. Om Wadhwa has once again donated his time to answer questions about swine flu.

The clinic is free of charge and is intended for the residents of Bethel, Newry, Gilead, Mason Township, Albany Township, and for those that have missed clinics in their town.

If there is someone who missed the clinic last Thursday and needs to have the bivalent shot, please contact Merton Brown, Kathie Tremblay, Sue Bartlett or Sue Laban.

Anyone who has some time that they could lend a helping hand on Saturday, please contact one of the above mentioned.

Please park in the parking lot adjacent to the clinic location.

FEATURE ADDED TO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BETHEL BROCHURE

A new feature has been added to the new Bethel brochure described in the Citizen last week. The outside panel of the brochure will consist of full-color collages of business signs (and other signs) which depict the spirit of the Bethel area. Several business members have offered to donate $100 towards the brochure's cost in order to have their business sign used in a collage. This service is accordingly offered to all business members. Included for the $100 donation is inclusion in a listing, with other subscribing businesses, members, including an indication of the business location, identified on the town street map.

Simply contact Louise Lincoln (824-2340) or John Willard (824-2781) if you have an interest in having your business sign included prominently in the collage.

To enjoy the sport themselves. Parents are also urged to participate in organizing and officiating at Bill Koch events.

If you are unable to attend the meeting and would like more information, contact Art Froberg at 824-2080.

S. A. D. 44 BOARD ACCEPTS TEACHER RESIGNATION AT MONDAY EVENING MEETING

The board of directors of M. S. A. D. #44 held a regular meeting at the Andover Elementary School on Monday evening of this week.

The board accepted the resignation of Rupert Grover, mathematics teacher at Telstar. Mr. Grover is planning to pursue interests in another field. At the Nov. 1 meeting the directors declined to grant a leave of absence to Mr. Grover. Plans are to have a substitute fill Mr. Grover's former position for the balance of this school year.

The directors approved the nomination by the superintendent, Kenneth Smith, of Cheryl Ann Lord to teach business education at Telstar. A graduate of the University of Maine at Machias, she majored in business education and had a minor in English. Miss Lord taught at Brewer High School during the 1975-76 school year.

While at Brewer she taught general business and bookkeeping, also serving as cheerleader advisor. Miss Lord succeeds Miss Gail Fletcher, whose resignation will be effective Nov. 24.

Mrs. Arlene Greenleaf of Bethel was approved as girls' varsity and junior varsity basketball coach at Telstar. No one has been secured as yet for the position of girls' varsity skiing coach and assistant ski coach at Telstar. During the citizens' portion of the meeting it was noted that it appears an inequality exists between boys and girls sports offerings at Telstar, principally in the number of coaches available.

The directors discussed the advisability of possible adoption of a standard of competency in subject areas necessary for the granting of a secondary school diploma. Competency areas would include mathematics, speaking, listening, reading and writing. The consensus was that such a standard would be desirable and that further discussion and study is necessary on the subject.

It was pointed out that sequential offerings in all academic disciplines, kindergarten through grade 12, would be of value in the achievement of competency, and the setting of goals for each grade level would be desirable.

Mrs. Marie Wilson reported to the board on the Title I program in remedial reading. The Andover School no longer qualifies for Title I program but because of the ongoing program this year permission has been secured from the State to continue its operation. The reason for lack of qualification by Andover is that less than 41% of the students are from continued on Page Four

BLOOD DRAWING CLINIC AT BINGHAM GYM MONDAY, NOV. 22

Workers from Bethel and the surrounding communities are continuing their efforts to insure a successful Red Cross Blood Drawing Clinic on Monday, Nov. 22. The Bloodmobile will be at William Bingham Gymnasium, Gould Academy, from 1 to 7 p. m. Prospective donors will be contacted prior to Monday with an appointment sometime during these hours.

Volunteers from the Bryant Pond and Locke Mills areas include Eva Twitchell, Kay McAlister, Cleo Kerns, Kay Billings, Susan Hathaway and Martha Neddeau. Also assisting are Jeanne Flynn, Judy Haskell, Maizie Dolven and Susan Landers. Those not contacted this week and wishing to donate blood, or their services, are asked to call Muriel Whitney, 824-2856, or Nellie Frankevicz, 824-2643. Anyone needing transportation should call Richard Verelle, 824-2851, or Dana Douglas Jr., 824-2229.

Donors are reminded to eat a regular well balanced meal within four hours prior to donating. Do not attempt to give blood with an empty stomach. Fatty foods, such as butter, cream, ice cream or eggs, should be avoided on the day of donation.

Red Cross blood is available to everyone through their hospital. Of particular concern is the supply of plasma necessary for treatment of the severely burned. The Red Cross, through your donations, is able to supply the special burn clinics, including the Shriners Burn Clinic in Boston, whose needs are so very great. Please do your share—donate on Monday!

TWO FROM AREA NAMED "OUTSTANDING" BY COUNTY EXTENSION ASSOCIATION

Albany HUNT'S CORNER AND VICINITY

— Kathy Bennett, Corres. —

The sun is shining brightly on this day that marks the halfway point of the month. How quickly time goes by! Next week families and friends will be gathering to enjoy the traditions of Thanksgiving and all the hunters will be trying their luck for the last time until next November.

Many of us reach a point in our lives when we feel there is nothing left to look forward to or that we have nothing more to give. I believe this quote from a poem written by Helen Seiner Rose will help all who feel this way.

"So rest and relax and grow stronger,
Let go and let God share your load.
Your work is not finished or ended, You've just come to a bend in the road."

There will be a meeting on Sunday, Nov. 28, at 2:30 p. m. at the church to form an organization name for the community group; election of officers, etc., so final plans can be made in the spring to repaint the inside of the building. TRADITIONAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT BERLIN CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH ON NOV. 25

Thanksgiving is a time to ask ourselves if our gratitude depends on how much of a harvest we actually have at hand. If our joys seem few and our problems many, can we still honestly be grateful to God? Indeed we can!

The traditional Thanksgiving services at First Church of Christ Scientist, Berlin, N. H., on Thursday morning, Nov. 25, will emphasize that one can always be grateful for God's riches — the gifts of His Spirit—which are forever at hand. A short selection of inspirational readings will include these passages from the Bible and Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "If our hopes and affections are spiritual, they come from above, not from beneath, and they bear as of old the fruits of the Spirit" (Science and Health, p.
451) and "...the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith" (Galatians 5:22).

One of the highlights of the service is the time set aside for Christians Scientists to tell how the riches of Spirit have blessed their lives and provided practical spiritual solutions to their everyday problems.

The service will be conducted by the First Reader, and the Second Reader. A solo "Make a Joyful Noise unto the Lord," by James McDermid will be given by the organist.

People of all faiths or no faith at all are warmly invited to attend the service which will also include the reading of the Thanksgiving Proclamation of General R.
Ford, President of the United States. No collection will be taken and care will be provided for small children.

The church is located at the corner of Main and Tenth Sts., Berlin, N. H., and the hour-long service will begin at 11 a. m.

FRUSTRATION

Dr. J. Philip Jackson
Community Church,
Rumford Center

Frustration is one of life's most aggravating emotions: we feel that our work is in vain and we are cornered on a dead-end street.

Some are frustrated by having too little to do. They know that they are capable of better things and yet are confined to trifling duties. It's like owning a powerful automobile and being restricted to 20 miles per hour on a turnpike. The energy is there; the opportunity is lacking. Did El-jah feel this way as he was instructed to wait God's time by the brook, Cherith? But, patience had her perfect work and God's time eventually came. It will for us, too!

Then there are some of us who are frustrated for having too much to do. Modern life is frequently like being in a pressure cooker:
its pressures leave little time for developing our higher faculties.
How long is it since you have read a good book, followed through an important thought, spent a whole day in meditation?

TO BE OVERLOADED WITH THE WORLD WILL FRUSTRATE THE SPIRIT! "Be still and know that I am God." Since I have been in scene Maine I have uncluttered my life of non-essentials, leaving some room for the expansion of my soul and feeling the interpen-etration of the Holy Spirit in an otherwise frustrating experience.

Others feel the frustration of not being able to do what they want to do. Frequently we plan and see our plans fall like a house of cards!

The cup of fulfillment is often at our lips, but before we take a sip, it is dashed away! How frustrating! Let us not be impatient, for I have discovered in the solitude of God's natural beauty that an all-wise Providence can superimpose His will on the situation and bring ultimate good out of our grievous losses. If I am the right person in the right place at the right time, God will turn frustration into victory!

COMBINATION OIL-WOOD FURNACES UNSAFE UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS

Combination oil-wood furnaces, which have entered the market the result of the increased cost of fuel oil, are unsafe under certain firing conditions, according to a University of Maine at Orono mechanical engineer, Prof.
Richard C. Hill.

Hill, who is also consultant to the Oil Burner Men's Licensing Board, said that anyone contemplating the installation of such a unit must be prepared to pay close attention to performance by keeping the chimney clean and cleaning the smoke pipe often.

"The combination oil-wood units will save oil," Hill said, "but they are not the set-and-forget units represented by the standard oil burner."

Typical situations with potential hazards listed by Hill are:
Low wood firing rates and low draft result in wood distillation and subsequent deposits and fire hazards in the smoke pipe and chimney.

The absence of positive fire shut off could result in firing rates that are too high.
Some fuels such as pitch laden softwood and trash will add to chimney deposit and draft problems.

Certain older chimneys are tolerant of oil burner fires but will not be adequate for the more aggressive wood burning gases. A check with a local fire department would be useful.

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY INITIATES MARKER SYSTEM

As part of the Bethel Historical Society's observance of the American Revolution Bicentennial, a historic marker system has been initiated. Bartlett Cemetery on the East Bethel Road was selected as the first site since it is perhaps the oldest cemetery in Bethel, containing numerous graves of Revolutionary War veterans. Records indicate that the first grave may have been dug here as early as 1780, six years after the town was settled. The cemetery which measures 128 by 180 feet is filled with graves, most of them unmarked, but a few possess crudely cut stones. It has long been neglected and the stone wall which surrounds the plot having fallen into disrepair failed to keep out the cattle in the nearby field.

Deeply concerned about this situation, the late Eva Bean published her local history "East Bethel Road" in 1959 for the purpose of raising money to fence the cemetery once more, the last such structure having been erected in 1845. Unfortunately, the book never realized enough in her lifetime to see this goal fulfilled, but she did establish a small fund to maintain the cemetery.

Last summer area high school students employed by the U. S.
Forestry Service under the leadership of Donald Freeman, as a Civic Action Project built with the able assistance of Robert D. Hastings, a fence around the cemetery and trimmed some of the brush.
The Forest Service furnished the cedar posts and a portion of the interest from the cemetery fund established by Miss Bean paid for the fence.

The historic marker will now identify this important historic site. The Society is planning to mark others throughout the town in the future.

YES, THE RESIDENTS OF BETHEL WANT A SKATING RINK

Merton Brown, Ernie Tremblay, Drew Webster, Lennie Shaw, Nancy Morris, Bonnie Angove, Gene Kelly and Gary Gillin, were present at a meeting on last Monday evening to discuss the likelihood of constructing and maintaining a skating rink on the Common.

The pros and cons of a boarded rink versus a packed snow rink were discussed at length. The majority of those present felt that to have a rink without boarded sides would not be best because the project would depend totally on snow. It was then decided to have one foot boarded sides. After going over to the Common to measure, the committee decided that the size should be 100 by 80.

Construction will take place on Sunday, Nov. 21, starting at 10 a. m. Anyone that can help is urged to be there.

John Gasser, Mike O'Donnell, John Laban, John Vrabec and Cathy Newell have expressed support, but were unable to attend the Monday meeting.

PUBLIC HEARINGS BY P. U. C. ON CTC RATE HIKE CONTINUE NEXT WEEK

The next round of public hearings on the average 21% increase in rates of Continental Telephone Company of Maine will commence Monday, it is announced by PUC Secretary Howard M.
Cunningham.

Continental Telephone Company of Maine, serving about 33,000 customers in the Fort Kent and Island Falls areas in Aroostook County, as well as in Damariscotta, Liberty, Raymond, Fryeburg, Andover, Bethel, Locke Mills, Roxbury Pond, West Bethel, North Norway and Upton, filed its request with the PUC last April 22.
The first round of hearings was held last Nov. 3, 4 and 5.

Pursuant to the Commission's alternate hearings procedures, a prehearing conference on this case was held in Augusta last Sept. 10.
Formal petitions to intervene were accepted from House Speaker John L. Martin, Eagle Lake; Representative James Wilfong, Stowe; Attorney Charles A. Pelree of Palermo and John R. Kingman of Oakfield.

The hike as requested by CTC would produce additional revenue of $310,488 and would vary from 6% to 50%, depending on the exchange and would average 21%.
In its application, CTC noted that if the rate hike is approved by the PUC, the maximum increase for any residential customer will be about $2.85 per month, and $6.05 per individual line per month for business customers. The Company also seeks increases in service connection charges and in other supplemental services and equipment.

Next week's hearing will be held in Room 114, State Office

EXAMINES MARKER — Dr. John J. Willard, Jr., president of the Bethel Historical Society, kneels to examine the historic marker recently placed by the Society in Bartlett Cemetery, be- lieved to be the town's earliest burial place.

Management Club held its November meeting on Monday, November 8 at the Country Way Restaurant in South Paris. President Robert Whitney presided.

Speaker at the meeting was William Stuart, Supervisory Training Manager for Ethan Allen Inc., Danbury, Conn. Mr. Stuart spoke on Ethan Allen's approach to management training. This was followed by a business meeting and committee reports.

A motion was passed during the meeting which provided for the honorary membership of town managers and school board members in towns where member companies are located. The intent of this measure is to provide a communication channel between town officials, school systems and industry. The following new member companies were welcomed by John Flanders of the membership committee: Bethel Furniture Stock, Bethel, Bethel Savings Bank, Bethel; Early Real Estate, Bethel; Newton-Tebbets Company, Bethel; Maine Machine, South Paris; and Timberlands Inc., Dixfield.

The meeting, which was attended by 88 members and guests, was adjourned at 8:45 p. m.

ONLY ONE CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR OF COUNTY CONSERVATION DISTRICT

The Oxford County Soil and Water Conservation District has received only one petition for the upcoming election for District Supervisor. Evan Thurlow of Oxford has filed his petition and is running for another three year term. Voters also have a choice of filling in a write-in vote on the ballot.

Evan operates a farm in Oxford along with his duties as a school bus driver for District #17.

Mr. Thurlow has lived on and helped operate the farm most of his life. He is a cooper with the Oxford County S. & W. Conservation District which is a requirement for any one wishing to run for supervisor.

On the ballots that have recently been mailed out to cooperators, there is also a blank line that may be filled in with a candidate of their choice if they wish. Should a cooperator not receive his ballot for some reason, he is requested to go to the District Office in South Paris and cast his or her vote. Anyone wishing to vote may do so regardless of race, color, national origin, sex or religion.
The voting will close on Nov. 29, 1976.

VEGETARIAN SUPPER BEING SERVED TO 150+ UMO STUDENTS EACH NIGHT

More than 150 University of Maine at Orono students line up each night to be served a vegetarian supper at Wells Dining Commons. The vegetarian menu has caught on at UMO and interest is increasing each month, according to dietitians. Plans are currently being made to introduce into the vegetarian menu the tofo-burger, a soybean curd fried in onions, carrots and sunflower seeds. The low cost protein food is another step, according to dieti-tians, in an attempt to wean students away from junk foods and empty calories.

Building Augusta, at 10 a. m.
This round will be devoted to the cross examination of Commission Staff and Intervenor's witnesses by counsel for Continental Telephone Company of Maine. The testimony of public witnesses who desire to testify in the proceeding as interested parties will be taken at various intervals during the two-day hearing phase. Following the round, the hearings will be recessed until Dec. 6.

To the Editor:
I was at the recent state cross country meet at Colby and had the pleasure of seeing the Telstar boys win first place in Class C competition. It was thrilling to see three of the team place in the first ten in such a large class. I was gratified to note that their victory was reported on the first page of the Citizen last week.

I am quite concerned, however, that no mention was made of the fact that sophomore Pam Bean, running in her first state meet, finished third in a class of perhaps 70 or girls from all over the state. Pam is the daughter of Erlon and Mary Bean of East Bethel.

If Pam continues cross country for the next two years, she will be someone to watch.

Upton

Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres.
Monty Washburn, Dan Cochran and Phil Korhonen installed a CB mobile radio and antenna in the Bernier home. It opens a new dimension of life, listening to trivia among hunters, truck drivers and housewives along with conversation concerning the condition of roads, warnings, getting help after a breakdown on the highway or in the woods or rescuing a lost hunter. In late afternoon, the stepped-up chatter among the woodsmen reminds me of the stepped-up chatter in the chicken house just prior to roosting time.

A car from Andover served as mini-bus Tuesday taking four passengers to Rumford and Bethel.

Supt. Smith met Wednesday a.m. with the bus driver, Andy Aron, concerning problems on the bus.

A few people from Upton attended the open house parent-teacher meeting at Errol school house Tuesday night.

The Ladies Aid met Saturday a.m. Lucille Largesse and Simmone Lavallee were put on committee for buying gifts for children. Leslie Aron was elected to help Larry Wade on the program.

Simmone Lavallee went Monday to the Berlin hospital for a check-up.

A hunting accident took place on Tuesday B Hill when a hunter shot towards the road. The bullet hit a car barely missing the occupants. State Troopers were called to investigate.

CUB SCOUTS
Den 1 met at Mrs. Newton's. The boys made booklets of rural America. Each boy drew and colored pictures with his own idea of what rural America is like. They also made turkeys of pine cones and pipe cleaners. The meeting ended with a lunch. Next Tuesday the pack will meet at the Bethel Savings Bank at 7 p.m.—Denner, Danny Cathcart Den 2: We met at Mrs. Brown's on Tuesday and practiced for the puppet show "The Talking Farm"—Denner, Brent Backsler.

Den 3: Today, Nov. 16, we had our meeting at Eric White's house. We went bowling last Saturday and then to McDonald's. We had a good time.—Denner, Kevin Sweetser.

"low income" families. The district as a whole has 41% of its students from "low income" families. Under Title I guidelines only those schools with the same or a greater percentage of students from "low income" families as are enrolled in the district as a whole are eligible.

Mrs. Wilson also reported on the Adult Education Program in the district. She reported that there are 17 courses currently offered, three of which are at Andover. There are about 250 enrolled including those in Adult Basic Education and those participating in volleyball and basketball. The high school equivalency test is available to adults as an alternate means of obtaining a high school diploma. High school diploma courses for adults show an increase of 25% in enrollment over last spring. Circumstances prevented the offering of Continuing Education courses at Telstar this fall. Hopefully negotiations with the University of Maine at Farmington will be fruitful and CED courses will be offered in the spring. Mrs. Wilson is proposing to offer the 8-hour Emergency Medical Training course in January through the auspices of CMVTL.

Arthur Froburg, district psychologist and Special Education Director, reported on the first five weeks of his tenure. He reported that the Pupil Evaluation Team is functioning well and that a closer "local school" cooperative effort is being implemented. A redefinition of the elementary and secondary special education roles would appear to be necessary. He hopes very soon to be able to expand his function as a psychologist, although some work has already been done in that area.

The board granted permission for an Andover student who is attending Gould Academy to be transported on a district bus as long as no additional expense to the district was incurred.

All members of the board were present Monday evening, as well as Glen Conrad, representative of the Telstar Student Council.

The next regular meeting of the S. A. D. #44 board of directors is scheduled to be held at the Telstar Library on Monday evening, Dec. 6.

S. A. D. #44 CHILDREN ARE READ-ATHON PARTICIPANTS
Children of School Administrative District 44 are participating in an exciting program sponsored by the Maine Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. This program is called the MS READ-athon. Its purpose is to stimulate reading on the part of the children and create a greater public awareness of multiple sclerosis. Designed specifically for elementary age children, the MS Read-athon has created excitement and a thirst for reading in every community that has participated.

The project is similar in operation to a walk-a-thon or bike-a-thon. Children have sponsors pledge so many cents for each book the child reads. The important difference is that READ-athon gives youngsters an extra incentive to read books for their own enjoyment—an interest which, in many cases, lasts long after the program is over.

This is the READ-athon's second year in Maine. Last year, 871 children participated from 17 different communities in Maine. They read 8,681 books, raising almost $10,000 for Multiple Sclerosis.

Students from grades 3-6 attended a film presentation and talk at the Telstar Regional High School Auditorium on Oct. 26. The presentation was made by Terence A. Davis, associate executive director of the Maine Chapter. The talk included an introduction of multiple sclerosis and an explanation of the READ-athon project and purpose.

Schools participating in the program, which winds up Dec. 3, are Andover Elementary, Crescent Park, Woodstock Elementary, Newry, and the sixth grade at Telstar.

Locke Mills

Mrs. John Mills, Corres.
The Locke Mills-Greenwood Swine Flu Clinic for ages 18-55 will be held Sunday, Nov. 21, 5-7 p.m. at the Locke Mills Fire Station. Anyone having an allergy to eggs, having a cold or fever, or having been vaccinated 14 days prior to the clinic should not receive the Swine Flu vaccine. It is required that a consent form be read and signed. A light lunch will be furnished by the Firemen's Auxiliary during the 20-minute wait after the vaccination. For further information contact Mrs. Harry Swan, Jr., co-ordinator.

The Community Club met Tuesday evening, Nov. 9 at the town hall with 13 members and one visitor present. Laura Pinlock received the Thanksgiving box. Games were enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mary Stone, Dora Ford, and Charlotte Cole, including a birthday cake for Marion Swan made by Dora Ford. There won't be any more meetings until April. Next months will be the family pot luck supper and Christmas tree on Dec. 14. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Royer and Irving Cole are invited as special guests for music and the supper.

Marcia Mills came home Saturday from Eastern Nazarene College for the remainder of the week end. John Smith and Bill Shimamura were Saturday evening supper guests of Marcia and Ralph Mills.

AT NOV. 11 PARADE in Locke Mills—Maude Danforth, Past President and Leona M. Curtis, President, and a Dept. Vice President, Auxiliary to World War I Baracks, No. 2043, Bethel.

ARMISTICE DAY PARADE HELD AT LOCKE MILLS LAST THURSDAY

Six World War I veterans, ages 78 to 89, braved the wind and cold and proudly rode in the open car in the Fifth Annual Armistice Day Parade in Locke Mills, Thursday morning, Nov. 11. They were Alan Cummings, driver; George Powers, Irving Martin, Maynard Chase, Paul Head and Charlie Andrews, the first commander of Post No. 68, American Legion in 1919.

The Jackson Silver Post and Unit colors led the parade, followed by Chaplain Fannie Cummings, who carried the special wreath, that she and Commander Cleveland Lovejoy placed at the Village Honor Roll. The volley was fired at the bridge and music was furnished by the Telstar Regional High School Marching Band, directed by Jerry Heffly.

Th. D. U. V. Bicentennial Float and marching unit captured first prize. Two World War I widows from Baracks No. 2043, Bethel, were given a special award. The ladies were Leona M. Curtis, President, and Maude Danforth, a Past President.

Miss Sylvia Cross and Jackie Cross riding their ponies, shared the third prize with the Model A Ford entered by Commander Vernon Redding of Post No. 68, Buckfield.

Legionnaire Chester Worthington of Brunswick awarded the prizes at the hall, where he and P. D. C. Robert Rich of Lisbon were the speakers. P. D. C. Donald Stone and family of Scarborough, and Clinton Delano of Peru, were also guests.

Due to the cold wind much of the regular program at the monument was cancelled, and the weather was too severe for comrades Herman Cummings, Charlie Clifford and Joe Barrett to participate. They, too, were World War I soldiers.

The fried clam dinner and the afternoon game party were well patronized.

Chairman Warren Smith was assisted by Stanley Sargent, Virginia Sargent, Vera Cross, Grace Smith and President Cathryn Lovejoy, also Comrade and Mrs. Leonard Dunham.

Thanks go to Legionnaire Wallace Loffreda of Portland for the wreath and the use of his car.

S. A. D. 44 ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

In today's world there exists a need for a knowledge of the principles of Accounting. A knowledge of accounting contributes to (1) a person's ability to earn a living; (2) a person's understanding of the economic activities of the business world; and (3) a person's competence in managing her personal affairs.

Therefore the course, "Fundamentals of Accounting" is designed to meet these needs of the 28 students enrolled who are continuing their education through the S. A. D. 44 Adult Education Program. The following materials are being covered in this course of basic accounting: the first half covers the accounting cycle of a service business in its simplest form. The cycle uses a general journal and a general ledger. At the end of the fiscal period the business prepares a five-column work sheet, an income statement and a balance sheet. Closing entries are recorded and posted. The general ledger accounts are balanced and a post-closing trial balance is prepared. The cycle ends with a project which covers the complete accounting cycle.

The second half of the course covers the accounting cycle of a merchandising business. Payroll systems will be discussed and, if time allows, an introduction to automated data processing will be presented.

In teaching this course Ted Davis feels that the students are being challenged and they are also having a "fun time."

One student commented "As a vocational rehabilitation student I have found this course extremely helpful to me in preparing myself to be self-supporting. The classes are lively and informative. I look forward to Monday nights, and enjoy the challenge of this course."

An Adult Education Survey is underway to help determine what courses should be offered in the Spring. These are available at the Post Office and may be left in a box there or mailed to Marie Wilson, Director of Adult Education at Telstar Regional High School.

close of the meeting. A singalong, led by Betty Tebbets, with Mary Fruit, cookies, jellies, articles (cards), from members would be appreciated. Kindly contact Cora Bennett, sunshine chairman, before Nov. 25. Cards to the ill were Elsie Waldron and Agnes Chase; birthday cards to Nell Valentine; anniversary cards to the Glines and Valentines.

Toys to needy children (used or donated) for Christmas will be delivered.

Those who observed their birthdays for November were Fergil Godwin, Dorothy Abbott, Eva Buckman, Frances Bennett (Bethel), Hulda Stevens, Elsie Tamm, Agnes Chase and Adeline Dexter. There were 81 members and guests seated. Carroll Valentine gave the blessing. A delicious smorgasbord style dinner was served, and the birthday cake, furnished by Maud Hunt and Sylvia Conroy, cut and served by Sarah Stevens.

The guest book was circulated by Mildred Lowell. The tables were decorated in Thanksgiving colors with a favor placed at each place setting.

Cards are to be sent by members to Clayton Bane, Herbert Rowe, Grace Buck and Harry Chase, who are ill.

A Christmas tree and exchange of gifts will be on the agenda for the December meeting.

PACK 566 IN RECORD TURN-OUT FOR SUPER BOWL-A-THON

On Sunday morning, 29 Cubs and 24 parents assembled in the old A. & P. parking lot and journeyed caravan style to Oxford Lane in Rumford for a super bowl-a-thon. The following sports capsule is not meant to be complete but should give some idea of the scoring talent exhibited in this demonstration of pin tipping. High scores for three strings were Brandon Salway, 198; Scott Kennagh, 197; Dale Korhonen, 187; Charlie Cousins, 188; Karl Barth, 165; Jay Hastings, 169; Donald Barker, 156; Jay Davis, 151; and Scott Sumner, 134. High totals for those who bowled only one string were Mike Jodrey, 124; Darrin Farrington, 117; Scott Kennagh, 109; Andy Wheeler, 108; Scott Dyer, 94; Keith West, 91; Scott Denison, 87; Mike Kelly, 84; Jon Ness, 80; Mike McGuire, 63; and Danny Myers, 60. High single game score went to Scott Korhonen, 69; Kevin Sweetser and his dad bowled the most games at six each. Strikes were made by just two Cubs, Brent Bacheider, and Bruce Barth, while spars were scored by Eric Wright, Willy Rice, Erik Froburg, Danny Cathart and Scott Newton who blasted two. Jim Feeney was the most consistent, he bowled the same score each time.

Highs for the dads were Bernie Rice's, 123; and Phil Korhonen's, 101. Respectable scores were also turned in by the distaff side, Mrs. Bacheider and Mrs. Denison. The other dad's scores best he kept a secret.

After bowling the Pack moved next door to McDonald's for lunch. Big mac's and french fries were the most popular items ordered with the management providing a free drink for each Cub.

Many thanks to all who attended, provided transportation and had fun. The next Pack activity will be the Pack meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 23, at the Savings Bank. All old Cubs will be re-registered at this time. The fee for this will be $3.00.

Any youngsters who have finished with Cubs and who might have Cub uniforms no longer needed and would like to donate them, they would be appreciated for a uniform exchange. Please call Jane Barth, 824-2031.

STATE POLICE URGE CARE DURING HOLIDAY WEEK END

The State Police urge motorists to be extra responsible during the forthcoming holiday week end.

"During the Thanksgiving week end period, Troopers will be especially alert for drinking drivers who can spoil the happiness for all of us," said Col. Allan H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine State Police.

Motorists are advised to remember if they are not in condition to drive to let someone else drive or take them home.

"On any trip—however long or short—it's also important motorists allow for possible snowy weather, icy roads and other driver's mistakes," said Col. Weeks.

Troopers on patrol usually have to respond to a greater number of accidents during a holiday period; therefore, motorists are cautioned not to drink if they plan to drive, and to use caution in order to arrive alive.
